

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

SALAAM JOHNSON,

Plaintiff,

v.

ORDER

LIEUTENANT PRIMMER, et al.

10-cv-316-slc

Defendants.

Plaintiff Salaam P. Johnson is proceeding in this case on First Amendment claims that he was improperly denied electronics for 65 days and retaliated against for using the inmate complaint review system. Now before the court is plaintiff's motion to compel discovery. Dkt. 37.

Requests for Admissions

Defendants objected to admitting or denying plaintiff's Requests for Admissions 1 and 2(b). The first request asks defendants to admit that documents submitted with his request be authenticated, but he does not attach any documents. Request 2(b) asks that defendants admit the Department of Corrections Policy and Procedure Manual and the American Correctional Association standards. Instead of a request to admit anything, this request asks for documents. Defendants agree to provide responsive documents if plaintiff clarifies this request.

Interrogatories

Plaintiff's first interrogatory states: "Were the defendants required to operate within the frame of legislative Rule DOC 310.16(6)?" His second interrogatory states: "If so, produce the ICE-p/a Position and Description, Knowledge and Skills Requirements." Although defendants objected to the form of these interrogatories, they provided the responsive documents.

Interrogatories 3 and 4 ask for the policies and procedures under which defendants operate. Defendants object because plaintiff fails to specify which policies and procedures he seeks. Plaintiff can re-submit a specific request and defendants will respond.

In interrogatory 5, plaintiff asks if defendants were obligated to uphold the constitution. Defendants object to the lack of specificity of this response. Further, this interrogatory seeks a legal conclusion and not facts likely to lead to admissible evidence.

Conclusion

Defendants have adequately responded to plaintiff's discovery requests. Further, they have agreed to supplement their responses if plaintiff clarifies his requests. Therefore, plaintiff's motion to compel will be denied.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that plaintiff Salaam Johnson's motion to compel, dkt. 37, is DENIED.

Entered this 13th day of February, 2011.
